Appendix July 12, 2005

Copies of lists from SS archives made in secret by Joseph Weiss, Camp elder, and kept till his liberation in Trobitz.

These lists were sent to me by the state authorities of Nieder Sachsen under whose Juristiction Bergen Belsen falls, in July 2005.

With the same post I received a booklet about the remembrance site of Bergen-Belsen. This contained some drawings by Louis Asher who was interned with us in the same compound. Of these I made copies and present them here.

On the 20th August of the same year I received the following letter in reply to an inquiry.

robert bar-chaimr1929@zahav.net.il

Dear Mr. Bar-Chaim,

Thank you for your email from July 11. Indeed Hanna Goslar, born 1928 in Berlin, had a little sister called Rachel, who was born 1940 in Amsterdam. They were deported to Bergen-Belsen together with their father from Westerbork on February 16, 1944. They also had got Paraguayan papers. The father perished on February 25, 1945 in Bergen-Belsen and the sisters became orphans. She also was liberated at Troebitz, but I don't know what happened to her afterwards. Hanna was nearly your age, but Rachel was twelve years younger. This might cause that you did not remind her. By the way there is a book telling the story of Hanna Goslar and her girl-friend Anne Frank:

Alison Leslie Gold "Memories of Anne Frank - Reflections of a Childhood Friend", published 1997 by Scholastic Press New York. The book based upon the experiences of Hanna Pick-Goslar.

With kind regards, Bernd Horstmann

Stiftung niedersaechsische Gedenkstaetten - Gedenkstaette Bergen-Belsen - D - 29303 Lohheide

As I have stated elsewhere I have no recall whatsoever of Hanneles little sister. However in a roundabout way it rather confirms what I wrote concerning the first hours after liberation. We could not possibly have done our foraging and 'house-hunting' with a little starved five year old in tow. It was difficult enough for us in our debilitated condition. Rachel must have remained with my mother.

Ashers drawings

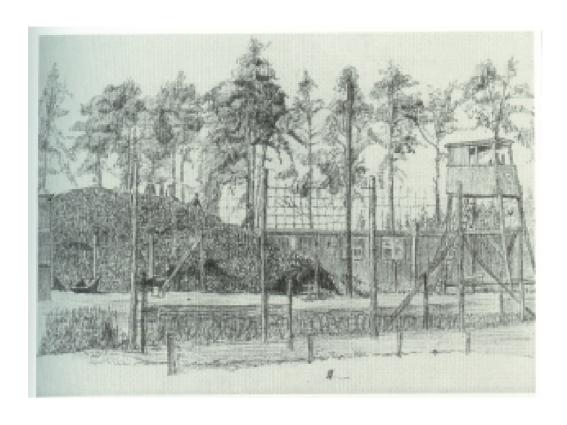

Row of huts by fence

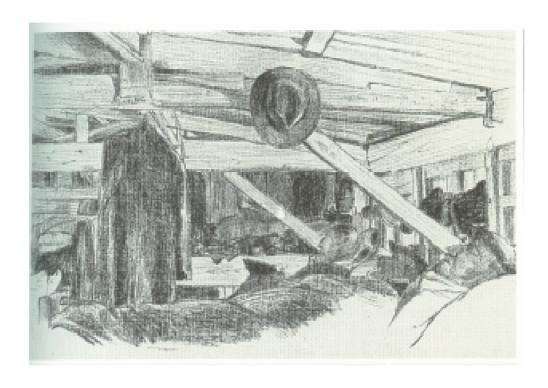

"Appell" square

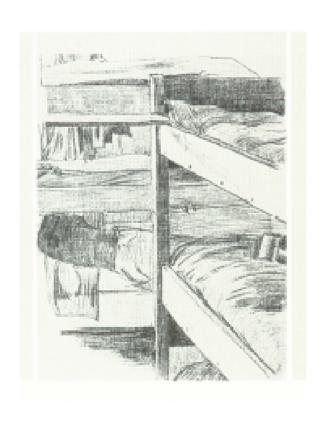

The pyramid of shoes.

Inside the huts

Another view of a row of huts, almost pastoral!

Les Sciernes März 1946.

> Mit heralichen friegaen von Herer Hanneli forlar.

This photo was send to my mother in 1946. The choice of German rather than Dutch for the dedication can be explained only by Channa being at the time in a Swiss T.B. sanatorium and consequently hearing only German spoken.

The inclusion of this photo became possible only through new technology on my computer.
